Scott Nedvesky

Answer the following question:

1) Give one reason (there are many) OAuth tokens should not be granted in the main flow, assuming the user has sent in the correct credentials.

Answer: OAuth tokens should not be granted in the main flow because it makes it easier for unauthorized users to hack and obtain false identity/credentials.